Pristine and Private Garden apartment

The beauty of this garden apartment lies in its proximity to nature, parks and attractions such as historical wine farms. Originally designed for overseas guests, this is a pristine home – one of a few apartments on an extremely large and well-run property in Natures Valley. The entrance to the apartment is from the private patio which overlooks a verdant garden. All the living areas are north-facing, with rooms filled with light. The open plan layout of the spacious lounge and kitchen is ideal for entertaining guests or just relaxing. The bedroom is an excellent size, with large windows and a door opening to the garden. The bedroom is quite private, as guests can enter the immaculate bathroom from the lounge. The overall impression of the property is one of safety and security, and peace of mind coming home in the...
